

[Your Name]

[Address] [Phone Number] [Email Address]

ABOUT ME

I am a person that people turn to for clarity and mediation, who values empathy, communication, and image. I enjoy helping others find calm and practical solutions, and believe that how you treat and represent people reflects your character above all else.

EDUCATION

Predicted A Level 2026 · [Sixth Form College]
A-level Law: A* · A-level Business Studies: A · A-level Psychology: A*

Achieved GCSE May-June 2024 · [Secondary School]
Maths (7), English Language (7), English Literature (9), Biology (9), Chemistry (8), Physics (8), German (7), History (8), Art and Design (9)
Plus one AS Level in Sociology (A)

LEGAL WORK EXPERIENCE

[Law Firm] — Work Experience 1-8 December 2025
Gained insight into legal practice across employment law, family law, and conveyancing through observing client meetings, assisting with drafting, and preparing documents. This experience highlighted the importance of communication — it was admirable how solicitors adapted their communication style to translate technical legal terms into understandable, actionable advice for clients, and reinforced just how important good, empathetic communication skills are in this profession.

NON-LEGAL WORK EXPERIENCE

Front of House — [Restaurant] Nov 2024 – Present
Take pride in enhancing clients' special occasions through efficient, personable service and a genuine commitment to creating a positive experience. Remain calm and respectful in challenging situations, using strong communication and teamwork to resolve issues effectively.

Sales Assistant — [Retail Store] Feb 2024 – Nov 2024
Developed strong client-facing, sales, and communication skills while consistently meeting targets through attentive, tailored service. Enjoyed using questioning techniques to understand client needs and provide solutions that enhanced both satisfaction and profitability.

Volunteering — Primary School July 2022
Supporting pupils in their learning taught patience, adaptability, and how to communicate clearly in varied situations. Gained confidence taking responsibility and solving problems quickly — skills that translate effectively to a legal environment.

EXTRACURRICULARS

Law Tutoring Sep 2025 - Present As a Law Ambassador, simplifies complex legal concepts for Year 12 students and peers by tailoring explanations to individual learning styles — strengthening the ability to listen, communicate clearly, and adapt approach to achieve the best outcomes for others.	House Captain Represents peers, organises sporting events, and motivates students from Year 7 to 11 across different year groups to participate and achieve — building approachability and clear communication.
Leader of Marketing Team Coordinates creative projects, delegates tasks, and ensures consistent branding as leader of the Sixth Form marketing team — strengthening leadership, attention to detail, and the ability to collaborate within and lead a team.	School Council Member Attends monthly meetings to discuss school improvement, discover student voice, and engage empathetically with younger students to encourage them to share their opinions — reinforcing the importance of individual perspectives in decision-making, and the ability to manage meetings and tasks alongside other commitments.

LEGAL EVENTS ATTENDED

A&O Shearman Tech and M&A | Forage
Completed Forage virtual work experience, gaining practical exposure to commercial legal tasks including legal research, contract analysis, and client-focused problem solving. Developed a clear understanding of how trainee solicitors support transactions through structured thinking, teamwork, and attention to detail.

Slaughter and May "Explore Law" | Forage
Rotated across corporate, competition, financing, and disputes teams — supporting due diligence, drafting letters and emails, and gaining insight into how lawyers manage transactions, communicate formally, and assess risk. Confirmed genuine enthusiasm for commercial law, particularly the blend of clear communication, analysis, risk evaluation, and real responsibility.

Slaughter and May "Commercial Law" | Forage
Learned how lawyers support public M&A transactions in practice — from pitching a firm's expertise and reviewing Heads of Terms to identifying legal risk and producing clear attendance notes to brief senior lawyers.

Legal Cheek Law Fair October 2025
Engaged with law firms, universities, and aspiring lawyers, strengthening confidence and communication by proactively asking questions during panel discussions. Networking with current apprentices reinforced motivation to pursue this route, highlighting the early responsibility, fast-paced work, and reward it offers.

Virtual Work Experience | Forage August 2025
Completed several job simulations, applying legal knowledge to tasks such as drafting presentations, minuting meetings, and managing workload efficiently — refining communication, organisation, and drafting skills in a commercial context.

Webinar — Clifford Chance Insight Oct 2025

Highlighted how empathy, technical expertise, and teamwork shape successful client outcomes in international law — inspiring a career in a collaborative environment where legal insight drives practical, creative solutions.

ACHIEVEMENTS

Gifted and Talented Register (Law and Psychology)

Recognised at the end of the recent academic year for academic excellence in Law and Psychology, demonstrating consistent high performance and ability, and dedication to understanding complex ideas and applying them to academic and practical contexts.

Headteacher Commendation

Awarded for exceptional academic performance, professionalism, and contribution to school life — recognised for consistency, leadership, and setting a positive example to peers.